DISCOVER THE CHARM OF BRONTE VILLAGE

BRONTE HARBOUR & VILLAGE

Bronte Village, in southwest Oakville, is one of Ontario's oldest communities – established back in 1834. Many people also consider it to be one of Ontario's most scenic areas to explore, due in part to its two public harbours: both Inner and Outer.

Wander through Bronte's spectacular Heritage Waterfront Park, home to all manner of picturesque delights, and discover the harbour with its stunning marina, boardwalk and pier. Make sure to take the time to explore the lighthouse, beach, parklands, abundant trails, and picnic areas, too!

Visit the friendly merchants, let your kids frolic at designated children's play areas, or simply relax and watch the boats gently glide by. Looking for some excitement on the water? Charter a sport-fishing outing to catch substantial trophy salmon.

Don't forget to watch the spectacular Canada Day fireworks at Bronte, every July 1st!
